

Trusted Partners for Advancing Health and Well-being of Individuals and Communities

Why invest in Women and Youth?

Half of the World's population today - over 3.5 billion people - is under 30, mostly living in developing countries

India has more than 65% of its population below the age of 35 years, which is also the reproductive and the productive age group for businesses

India's per capita gross domestic product (GDP) can rise an additional 13% by 2031 if family planning policies are actively prioritized.

Responding to urgent needs in India*

- Population: 1.37 billion
- Over 600 million young people
- 27% of girls married before 18
- 7% are married before the age of 15
- 21.40 lakhs of people living with HIV (PLHIV)
- 20% of world's maternal deaths
- 18.7 % total unmet need for family planning
